

Association of Indian Laboratories

Registration no. 018201401605

Code of Conduct

AOIL Membership is open to lab owners & lab professionals. There shall be no misrepresentation of facts to demean AOIL for commercial & political interests.

AOIL members are expected to promote the image of AOIL as global professional technical association. They should solemnly affirm to abide by the following Dos:

- Use valid AOIL Membership current status for promotion of lab services.
- Send authenticated documents to support the AOIL Membership application.
- Strive to increase the support and prestige of the association among stakeholders.
- Maintain the membership as a means for quality services, professional growth and avoid the use of AOIL Membership for solicitation of personal financial gain.
- Provide feedback for the AOIL involvement and contribution to problems, grievance & achievements of the member labs.
- Use AOIL logo through print and digital media to indicate membership for the bonafide purposes of lab services & AOIL objectives.
- Do not involve in unethical activities or illegal conduct as it may call for debaring of membership/cancellation of membership of the association.
- Do not criticize or use hate language/speech while interacting with other AOIL members in meeting, delegations & conferences.
- Do not engage in unethical, unprofessional practices or political dialog with other AOIL members.

Signature.....

Designation.....

Laboratory's Name.....

..... Date...../...../.....